Richmond at Lynchburg. Norfolk at Portsmouth. Roanoke at Danville.

Fifteen hundred fanatics braved a drizzling rain and a chilling wind to see the Champions and the Truckers clash again yesterday afternoon, and they were treated to the classiest exhibition seen on Broad Street Park since the Red Sox were in our midst at the opening of the season.

Bob Foxen, brother of the pitcher of the Philadelphia National League team, had perfect control, but the Champions took very kindly to his offerings, and they failed to hit him in only one inning.

Walter McCauley, who stacked up against a ten plunk fine Thursday afternoon, was back on the job again, and he was as mild and tame as any lamb that ever grazed in a pasture.

Umpire Black had to fine somebody yesterday, and as none of the visitors would give him a chance to soak them, he handed out a $5 fine to Jay Kanzler.

McCaulley whipped to Maher, and the latter dashed for the plate and beat the throw about three feet. Many jeers for McCauley. Billett made a great running catch of Sandherr's line drive to left.

EASTERN VIRGINIA INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONS

RANDOLPH-MACON HAD FAST TEAM THIS SEASON

Yellow Jackets Won Thirteen of Nineteen Games and Captured Championship Cup

LANCASTER WAS THE STAR HITTER

Fast Third Baseman Broke Up Many Games—"Eli" Gravelly Pitched Great Ball Through-out Spring—Pritchard All Around Fast Man.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHLAND, VA., May 22.—With the victory over the speedy Hampden-Sidney team at Richmond Wednesday, Randolph-Macon College won the championship cup of the Eastern Virginia Athletic Association, and closed one of the most successful seasons in the history of the college.

The Yellow Jackets met with but one real surprise during the season. That was its defeat by the Williams and Mary team in Richmond during the championship series.

Randolph-Macon defeated the Tigers of the Peninsula in the anti-season game, and was looked upon as the winner in the championship engagement. However, the team suffered an awful slump in batting in that match.

There were only three new men on the team this year—Second Baseman Gillette, Left Fielder Cox and Pitcher Smith. With eight of last year's men in line, Coach Rice Warren was able to get the team in working shape in a very short time.

Except for an awful slump in the game with the Union Theological Seminary and a wondrous game of strategy played against Richmond College in Ashland, the nine players consistent ball throughout the spring.

Much credit is due Coach Warren for the success of the team this year. Besides developing the individual players, he trained the team on "slide play" and at this it was particularly strong.

The record of the team for the entire season is as follows: The last six games being all championship games: Randolph-Macon, 0; Virginia, 1; Randolph-Macon, 1; Trinity, 1; Randolph-Macon, 1; Wake Forest, 2; Randolph-Macon, 7; Wake Forest, 5; Randolph-Macon, 4; Wake Forest, 2; Randolph-Macon, 3; Fredericksburg College, 1.

TIGERS LOSE IN TENTH ON ERRORS

Newton Makes Wild Throw, and Lawrence Trots Home With Only Run of Game.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, Va., May 22.—In one of the hardest fought and most interesting games played on the local grounds this season, Lynchburg won from Roanoke in the tenth inning this afternoon by a score of 1 to 0.

Both Moser and Doane, who did the box work for their respective teams, did one work, both having almost perfect control and allowing but few scattering hits.

There was nothing sensational throughout the contest, each team fighting for the winning run.

In the extra inning, Moser, the first man up, went out on a long fly to centre field. Lawrence, next up, hit a hot one to short and beat it out on a close decision.

Both Moser and Doane, who did the box work for their respective teams, did one work, both having almost perfect control and allowing but few scattering hits.

FANCY BIRD WINS AT JAMESTOWN

Dion Kerr Rides Saunders's Horse to Victory in Race for Gentlemen Jockeys.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, Va., May 22.—The Jamestown races to-day were again run on a wet track during a continuous northeast greeze, but the crowd was good, many having been attracted by the special race for gentlemen jockeys.

Fancy Bird, ridden by Dion Kerr, was an easy winner, with Killochan, ridden by Joe Kelly, of Savannah, Ga., second, just ten lengths ahead of Sparkles, ridden by L. Garth. The winner was quoted at 5 to 1, with a handsome cup to her rider, presented by the Jamestown Jockey Club.

Star Gowan broke down in the fourth race, and Lois Cavanaugh, the public favorite, took the ride in the fifth race.
